

Leadership Belongs to Everyone Program Saturday November 5, 2016 9:00 AM - 4:30 PM

The Spirit of Leadership, in collaboration with Dare2Care and Compass Consulting, has designed a unique workshop for the students, teachers, and Board members of Dare2Care to come together to expand their leadership capacities and begin development of a curriculum that will change the way schools talk about sexual orientation and gender identity.

The intention of the "Leadership Belongs to Everyone" Program is to PARTNER WITH HORSES and NATURE to build and strengthen the capacity of D2C's leaders. You will have the opportunity to build upon your individual strengths and resources, and to explore challenges and opportunities in your school/workplace environment. The day is divided into two parts:

9:00 AM – 12 NOON: Leadership and Team Building

FOCUS: To build leadership capacity through "Experiential Learning With Horses and Nature-focusing attention on individual strengths, cooperative team building, and a shared vision of success. There is no riding. You will directly experience leadership and teamwork by establishing communication and trust with the horse and each other, leading your horse team through challenges, and move with a herd of horses towards a direction or goal.

The morning session will be facilitated by Jackie Stevenson and staff, and a herd of seven horses and one zebra

1:00 am – 4:30 pm: Curriculum Development

FOCUS: Exploration of the design and development of Dare2Care's unique high school student/faculty workshop curriculum. (A 4 hour workshop to create student and educational leaders who are fair-minded and committed to changing the current climate of LGBTQ targeted bullying and harassment in our schools).

The afternoon session will be facilitated by Tameka Taylor and staff of Compass Consulting.

Come prepared to spend the morning in Nature. Dress for the weather...Rain or shine. Long pants, socks and hard shoes preferred tennis shoes okay. No sandals or open toed shoes.
