8:00 AM – 12 Noon (Session 2)

Presenters (2nd speaker TBA)

Amy Story, PhD

Director of the Honors Program

Assistant Professor of Philosophy

Baldwin Wallace University

This 4-hour workshop is designed to help participants deconstruct some of the myths, misconceptions, and stereotypes associated with the terms gender, sex, sexual orientation, and how these issues are influenced by race. This will be an opportunity to explore and challenge some of your own assumptions about identity in a creative and supportive environment.

The format is casual, interactive, and inclusive and will build on the material from session 1.

The workshop is offered at no charge, however space is limited and registration is required.

PLEASE CONTACT:

Lisa Kingsmill at: kingsmill10@jcu.edu if you would like to attend.

LOCATION:

Lakewood High School 14100 Franklin Blvd Lakewood OH 44107 Lecture Hall 1. (Please park in the visitor parking lot left of the Franklin Blvd Entrance).

STUDENTS ARE WELCOME!
